

Extinct Future World Attractions

Copyright © 2015 - Created by JamesD (dzneynut)
Beginning on top row, email the first 10 unused letters to dzneynut.puzzle@gmail.com for a chance to win a Disney pin!

1. Guests could find _____, the predecessor to Innoventions, in the central hub of Future World.
2. This entire health-related pavilion came and went in less than 15 years. (3 words)
3. The pavilion in #2 was sponsored by this life insurance company when it first opened?
4. This pavilion, which is sadly missed by nostalgic Disney fans, was actually a sequel to the Carousel of Progress.
5. How many twenty-first century endings did guests have to choose from when visiting the attraction in #4?
6. What attraction in the pavilion in #2, using flight simulator technology similar to Star Tours, took guests on an action-packed journey through the human body? (2 words)
7. What comedian, who can now be seen over at O Canada, was the narrator of the film "The Making of Me." (both names)
8. What was the name of the original 3-D movie shown in the Imagination pavilion? (2 words)
9. Most of the original sponsors of Future World pavilions have come and gone, like the Imagination's sponsor, _____.

10. The preshow film for the 3-D attraction in #8, used the Sherman brothers song, " _____ ' _____ " as its theme song.
11. The first environmental film shown at the Harvest Theater in The Land was called what?
12. What attraction in #2 examined the operation of the brain of a twelve-year old boy, using popular comedians as organs? (2 words)
13. This attraction, which took guests on a whimsical look at transportation, could be found where the Test Track now resides. (3 words)
14. The pavilion in #13 was sponsored by what domestic automaker? (two words)
15. The rotating restaurant in The Land was originally called what? (3 words)
16. The ocean research center in The Living Seas was originally called? (3 words)
17. This original musical show in The Land taught guests nutrition in an entertaining way through the use of parody singing audio-animatronics. (2 words)
18. The French hostess of the attraction in #17 was whom?
19. The original boat tour in The Land pavilion, _____ the Land, became Living With the Land in 1993.
20. What whimsical character that was created just for Epcot Center's opening, has come and gone (and came back again!) in Journey into Imagination?
21. Once located where the entrance to Soarin' now exists, this musical AA show about nutrition followed in the footsteps of #17, and included characters like Pita Gabriel and the Peach Boys. (2 words)
22. The Land, which is the largest pavilion in Future World, was originally sponsored by _____, then _____ before it became sponsorless in 2007.
23. This pavilion, which is covered by solar cells, used to tell the story through film and audio-animatronic dinosaurs of how " _____, You Make the World Go Round."
24. The largest merchandise shop in Future World prior to MouseGear was originally called what?
25. The first Epcot 'attraction' to ride off into the sunset after only 15 months was the Astuter _____ Revue.
26. The 'elevators' in The Living Seas were referred to as what?
27. The hands-on display area located on the second level of the Imagination pavilion was called what? (2 words)
28. The interactive area that guests visited as they exited Spaceship Earth was called The _____ Neighborhood.
29. In honor of the Millennium Celebration, a giant Sorcerer Mickey hand holding a wand and the number '2000' was built over Spaceship Earth. In 2001, the number '2000' was changed to what acronym, before finally being removed completely in 2007.
30. The Future World pavilion in #4 was originally going to be called _____ 3.
31. The original theme song for the pavilion in #13 was entitled, "It's Fun to be _____"
32. How many variations, and thus narrators, have there been of Spaceship Earth?
33. During the early version of Universe of Energy, the supertanker Exxon _____, which was involved in a disastrous oil spill in 1989, was prominently displayed in one of the promotional films.
34. The third 3-D movie to make its way into the Imagination pavilion was based on the "Honey, I Shrunk the Kids" series of films, but in this attraction, it was the _____ that was shrunk.